ADAC HOCKENHEIM HISTORIC

Pure racing passion meets nostalgia. Spectacular racing series and impressive highlights come together to rekindle the glory of days gone by. At the heart of it all: the unforgettable Jim Clark, the "Flying Scotsman," with his two Formula 1 World Championship titles in 1963 and 1965. His tragic accidental death in Hockenheim in 1968 remains an inseparable part of his legend.

Look forward to an event that truly celebrates the love of motorsport - authentic, passionate, and crafted with attention to detail. A magnificent racing weekend, created by motorsport enthusiasts for motorsport enthusiasts, is guaranteed!

Make sure you get the right package for you and your business customers!

CENTRAL LOUNGE SOUTH GRANDSTAND

Experience thrilling motorsport from a first-class perspective in the exclusive VIP area of the central lounge on the impressive South Grandstand. From the comfortable, padded seats in the upper tier of the South Grandstand, you have direct access to the lounges and enjoy a spectacular view of the racetrack, including the pit stops, the start-finish line, as well as the south and north curves. Here, you are right in the heart of the action and can feel the fascination of motorsport up close. You can follow the race either in VIP comfort directly in front of the lounge or from your seat in one of the open grandstands – always accompanied by an unforgettable racing atmosphere.
